DEATH

MRS. PAUL S. DRINKARD

Mrs. Jessalyn Hancock Drinkard, 60, wife of Paul S. Drinkard, died Tuesday at 11 p.m. at Virginia Baptist Hospital after an extended illness.

Born in Appomattox County, she was the daughter of the late Walter Martin and Matilda Anne LeGrand Hancock. She was a member of the Liberty Baptist Church.

She was assistant cashier of The Farmers National Bank of Appomattox and had been employed with the bank for the past 37 years. She was a director, secretary and treasurer of the Appomattox Hardware Co. She was one of the founders and a director of the Appomattox Truck and Tractor Co.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by one brother, W. B. Hancock of Appomattox; four sisters, Mrs. W. W. Scott, Miss Annie Hancock and Mrs. Watkins M. Abbitt, all of Appomattox, and Mrs. W. F. Woolfolk of Petersburg.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 3 p.m. from Liberty Baptist Church by Dr. Carl A. Collins and the Rev. W. M. Thompson. Burial was in Liberty Cemetery. Pallbearers were Bill Hunter, Gene Paulette, A. R. Hardwood Jr., Dr. C. G. O'Brien, George Abbitt Jr., S. S. Lipson, R. F. Jamerson and Carl Wooldridge.

MRS. HENRY C. STAPLES JR.

Miss Betty Jean Allred became the bride of Henry C. Staples, Jr. both of Richmond, Virginia, on Saturday, June 30.

Rev. Jack Minnick of Richmond officiated with Rev. G. F. Coffey of Alexandria, Va. in Reveille Methodist Church, Richmond, at four o'clock in the afternoon. A reception in the social hall of the church followed.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Allred, Sr., of Albemarle, North Caolina, was given in marriage by her father.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Staples, Sr., of Evergreen, chose his father as best man.

She wore a gown of silk peau de soie, reembroidered Alencon lace glistened with seed pearls, garlanded the neckline and skirt front which swept into a chapel train. Her fingertip silk illusion veil was attached to a crown of Alencon lace accented with seed pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid showered with stephanotis.

The Maid of Honor was Margaret Ruth Allred, sister of the bride, of Albemarle, N. C. She wore a dress of nile green embroidered silk organza over taffeta, styled with a scooped neckline. She had a matching taffeta open top pillbox with a yellow circular face veil. Her flowers were yellow chrysanthimum daisies and yellow roses.

Other attendants were Misses Jane Wolfe of Abingdon, Va. and Jane Franklin of Richmond; Mrs. Robert Quinn of Richmond and Mrs. Gordon Staples of Evergreen. Their dresses were similar to the Maid of Honor's. They carried yellow chrysanthimum daisies tied with yellow ribbon.

Ushers were Paul W. Allred, Jr. of Albemarle, N. C.; Gordon Staples of Evergreen; and Doyle Burnette and Robert Quinn of Richmond.

Mrs. Allred chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of aqua embroidered batiste with yellow roses. Mrs. Staples wore a blue lace dress over taffeta and a corsage of pink roses.

For taveling the bride chose an aqua dacron dress with matching pillbox hat with white gloves, shoes and pocketbook to compliment her outfit.

After a trip to the mountains of West Virginia, the couple will make their home in Richmond, Virginia.

MRS. VIRGIL K. CHEEK

The wedding of Miss Linda Marie Sarver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Sarver of Appomattox to Mr. Virgil K. Cheek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Cheek of Ashboro, North Carolina, took place at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at Memorial Methodist Church, Appomattox.

Reverend Richard A. Benjdoll performed the double ring ceremony and a program of music was presented by Miss Peggy Godsey at the organ and Mr. John Hall, vocalist. The sanctuary of the church was decorated with cybothium ferns, white carnations, and candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of princess lace and tulle over taffeta. The bateau neckline was fintsed with appliques of lace and embroidered in seed pearls. Crystal - pleated tulle ruffle fell from the waist to the hem on each side of the full floor length skirt, which ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip length veil of French illusion was attached to a crown of lace, embroidered in seed pearls, and she carried a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Jacqueline Sarver was her sister's only attendant. She wore a blue chiffon over taffeta dress with matching blue accessories. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations and greens. Mr. Tommy Drinkard of Oakville, Virginia and Mr. Cecil Wooldridge, Appomattox, Virginia were ushers. Both friends of the bride. Mr. Wayne Cheek, brother of the bridegroom was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Sarver entertained with a reception in the church social hall immediately after the ceremony.

For their southern wedding trip, the bride chose a navy blue dress with white trim, with white accessories adding the white orchid from her bouquet.

Upon their return the couple will make their home at Lakewide Drive, Thomas Terrace, Lynchburg, Va.
